Dear Gene:

Thank you for all the time and attention that you devoted to our renovation project at 141-C Sams Street in Decatur. Although this project was small, we always felt that you invested the same amount of time and effort that you would have if ours had been a huge project. The process went very smoothly – from opening construction accounts through overseeing design, bidding, and execution. You were able to facilitate the total cost coming in under the original estimate.

We are very pleased with our new dance studio, and we have received many compliments on our new space from clientele and visitors. We will definitely continue to refer people who are interested in a renovation or new construction to your company.

Sincerely,

Ron Everett
Owner and Business Manager
